LRAF Opportunities

Webster Outlying Field (WOLF) Special Communications Mission Solutions (SCMS) Division

- Special Operations Forces (SOF) Command, Control, Communications, Computers, Cyber, Intelligence, Surveillance, and Reconnaissance (C5ISR) Mission Solutions
 - Competitive follow-on to N00421-19-D-0055
 - Scope: Provides rapid design, fabrication, installation, and fielding of SOF C5ISR system and capability enhancements via technically derived solutions. Requirements include refinement, design, testing, integration, prototyping, training, fielding, and program management support. Specifically, they entail technical engineering installation and testing; interoperable and SOF unique technical and communication systems; and the transition of SOF unique C5ISR technologies to general services.
