

SPEAKER

Ms. Mieke Eoyang
Former Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Cyber Policy

Ms. Mieke Eoyang is a national security policy expert, previously serving as the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Cyber Policy. In that role, she was the senior civilian responsible for cybersecurity and electronic warfare strategy and policy at the Department of Defense, aligning the use of cyber for offense and defense within the broader defense and US government strategies. Prior to her service in the executive branch, she was a recognized think tank leader in developing policies and strategies to address cybercrime, ransomware, electronic surveillance, and privacy. She also has over a decade of service in various Congressional national security roles, drafting legislation and conducting oversight, including on the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and the House Armed Services Committee, as well as for individual members of Congress. Her writings have been published by The Washington Post, the Journal of National Security Law and Policy, Democracy: A Journal of Ideas, and Politico, among other publications.

Ms. Eoyang received her Juris Doctor from the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, and her Bachelor's Degree from Wellesley College.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE CYBER DEFENSE COMMAND